President Heads For Colorado in Campaign

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

ABILENE, Kan. (AP) — President Eisenhower, waging a "soft sell" political campaign so far on his cross country tour, travels on to Colorado today for a quiet weekend visit with his ailing mother-in-law.

There were some indications the President would put in a plug for Kansas' Republican office seekers before leaving this prairie town of his boyhood for Denver. And there was some likelihood he would get together in the Colorado capital with GOP candidates for Congress and state jobs.

But any gloves-off campaigning the President does probably won't come until he arrives in California Monday. He speaks in Los Angeles that evening and in San Francisco Monday morning before flying on to Chicago for a Wednesday night talk.

Eisenhower, out to try to help the Republicans capture control of Congress from the Democrats, soft-pedaled politics all day Friday—his first day out of Washington on a 5,300-mile tour.

On his first stop at the National Piping Contest at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the President told a crowd of 85,000 at the outset of his speech he would take no politics. Never one did he mention the word "Republican" — "Democrat" either, for that matter.

In Abilene later in the day, he really shamed polis in favor of nostalgic visits to the family home and the adjacent Eisenhower Museum.

The President's Denver visit with Mrs. Eisenhower will be his first—with the exception of a brief airport stop during the 1956 campaign—since he suffered a heart attack on Sept. 24, 1955, at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John S. Doud. The heart seizure hospitalized him in Denver for several weeks.

In Cedar Rapids Friday, Eisenhower talked around the fringes of the foreign policy controversy over United States aid in defense of the Chinese Nationalist offshore island of Quemoy.

Without specifically mentioning that and other islands off the China Mainland, Eisenhower said:

"We must understand that what we are trying to defend today is no mere territory. . . . We are defending principles."

He pledged that so long as he is president American foreign policy will be based on "a firm refusal to countenance Communist territorial expansion by force."

Inmate Tells Events in Prison Slaying

OSCEOLA, Ark. (AP) — A former inmate of the Mississippi County Penal Farm testified yesterday to events preceding the fatal beating of a guard captain by a prisoner.

The testimony came in the opening day of the trial of Jimmy Pike, 30, charged with first degree murder in the Aug. 3 beating of Capt. John Doyle, 50.

The witness, Martin Wheeler of Paragould, told of a fight involving Doyle and Pike. He said during the fight Farm Sup't L. E. Pierce gave him a gun to be given to Junior Erwin, another prisoner. He said Pierce directed him to tell Erwin to kill Pike "and to be sure he made a good shot of it."

Pierce took the stand to say Erwin took the gun away from him and said he was going to kill Pike.

Pike, of Benton County, is charged with beating Doyle with a rifle, cutting him with a knife and shooting him with a shotgun. The guard died Aug. 15.

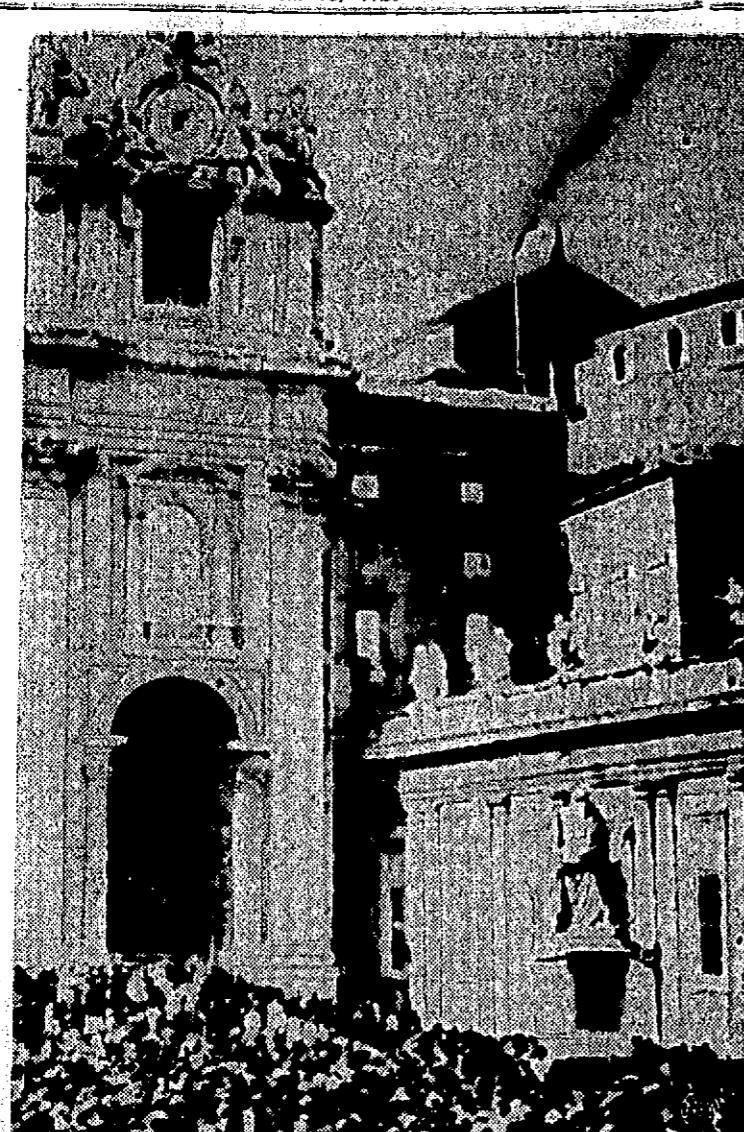

Pierce testified that Pike and Erwin, both trustees, had left the farm on Aug. 3 on an errand. He said after they returned Pike attacked Doyle when the guard attempted to place the prisoner in a cell block.

Pierce said Pike then took the guard's gun and took refuge in a room outside the cell block. He exchanged shots with officers called from Osceola but surrendered after the building was surrounded. Pierce testified.

Prosecutor Terry Shell is asking the death penalty in the case being tried before Judge Charles E. McCourtney of Jonesboro, representing Pike.

Weather

ARKANSAS — Clear to partly cloudy today. No important temperature changes.

WAITING FOR THE SIGN—A wisp of smoke from a black stovepipe erected on top of the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City, this will be the Roman Catholic world's most important news source in connection with the election of a new Pope. Thousands of watchers are shown, above, in 1939 as a wisp of black smoke floats upward, the sign that Eugenio Pacelli had not yet received the necessary two-thirds, plus one, vote of the Sacred College of Cardinals. Shortly thereafter came the white smoke.

70 Prisoners Fail in Try to Escape

By ROBERT L. MOORE

DENVER (AP) — Severely prisoners, at least one of whom a confessed murderer, made a desperate but vain bid to escape from the Denver County jail late Thursday.

Police chief H. D. Holland refused to identify the girl. He said she parked a small car in front of the post office, but was unable to hold a similar call.

A social worker at the New York Guild for the Jewish blind was told over the telephone, "there's a bomb there," and hung up.

In New York on Thursday, St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Cathedral received two anonymous bomb threats; a plank was thrown through a window of a Hebrew institute, and a college student was accused of making an anti-Semitic phone call to the Jewish agency.

At Jersey City Friday night the Temple Beth El received an anonymous bomb threat; but services went on as scheduled.

At Elizabeth, about 350 children were evacuated from a Jewish school.

But the President told Nixon Thursday he could answer any Democratic charges against the policy. And Nixon told a press conference here that foreign policy was not only a legitimate campaign issue, but a primary one.

He said U.S. policy in Lebanon and Formosa was one of the most effective issues for the Republicans, though he did concede that some Democrats also favored American action in those spots.

At a rally Thursday night he said the answer to critics of both domestic and foreign administration policies was simply to point out that there is peace and economic progress.

Nixon also outlined the role he believes Cabinet members should fill in the campaign. He praised Agriculture Secretary Ezra Taft Benson of Utah as "a fighter for the principles and policies in which he believes."

"If all the members of the President's Cabinet will in the last three weeks of this campaign fight as effectively and as ardently for their policies as he fought for his, hundreds of thousands of votes will be shifted from the Democratic to Republican candidates in key House and Senate races," he said.

Rabbi Joseph L. Ginsberg said the prayer was put on the blackboard by children of the second grade days before a homemade bomb went off outside the temple annex last Tuesday. The prayer read: "Dear God we thank you for being kind to us. Help us to think of other people. We hope we will be kind to everyone all through the years."

In Atlanta Friday night, Rabbi Jacob M. Rothchild held the first Sabbath service since the Temple was bombed last Sunday. But the blast had its benefits, Rothchild said, adding:

"Together with an aroused humanity, we shall rear from the rubble of devastation a city and a land in which all men are truly brothers—and none shall make them afraid."

Five men were charged Friday with the Atlanta bombing. Their indictment—destroying a house of worship—could bring death sentences under the local law.

The cell block was wrecked. Windows, brooms and brushes were broken. Mattresses were ripped open, and water had flooded the floor. Remnants of food served in trays to extremely dangerous prisoners housed in the two lower sections of the six-tier block were scattered on the walls and floor.

The maximum security cell block contains 100 of the jail's 730 prisoners.

Pierce said Pike then took the guard's gun and took refuge in a room outside the cell block. He exchanged shots with officers called from Osceola but surrendered after the building was surrounded. Pierce testified.

Prosecutor Terry Shell is asking the death penalty in the case being tried before Judge Charles E. McCourtney of Jonesboro, representing Pike.

Ike Linking Democrats to Socialism

By WARRON ROGERS JR.,
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has joined the ranks of Republican leaders who say or imply that socialism may result if the Democrats retain control of Congress.

The raising of this old political specter apparently is a deliberate GOP strategy born of acute shortage of campaign contributions.

Hardening of the financial arteries is not restricted to the Republican party alone. The Democrats also are finding their supporters swelled by a buck this year.

Out there is a basic difference between the two parties in the way they parcel out their campaign money in congressional elections. The Republicans have more central control, in Washington, while the Democrats depend on local contributions raked up by the individual candidates.

Republicans figure each of their campaign committees—national House and Senate—needs a million dollars this year for a total of three million dollars. So far, they have collected about 40 per cent of that.

The Democrats' House committee had a $250,000 campaign budget last time. This year it has been cut to $75,000.

Eisenhower is reported to have appealed to affluent Republicans for more open-handed contributions during White House stag dinners. Tuesday, combining his 68th birthday celebration with party politics at a partisan breakfast, he said:

"We started off in 1952 to break away from the kind of government—the kind of political philosophy, that wants to put all power, all direction of our economy and of our whole population, in the hands of a central bureaucracy."

Nine days ago GOP leaders went beyond that. After meeting with Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon at the White House Oct. 6, they issued a statement saying:

"Either we Americans dedicate ourselves to strengthening and preserving private enterprise, using the only dependable political instrument available—the Republican party—or we are certain to go down the left lane which leads inescapably to socialism."

Three days later, on Oct. 9, Nixon was in Columbus, Ohio, making a campaign speech. In it, the vice president argued that the Eisenhower administration had done more than its Democratic predecessors to increase Social Security benefits, raise wages and stabilize the cost of living.

Such seeming inconsistencies—warning against socialism one day and boasting of Social Security gains three days later—are what Americans generally expect in a campaign year. Former President Truman's slam-bang tactics demonstrate that no party has a patent on political doubletalk.

In this case, it appears to have a precise purpose—to yell "boo" at the people who are most afraid of ghosts. Moneyed, ultrconservative Republicans—no matter how disenchanted with Eisenhower-type "Modern Republicanism"—might be made to part with bigger checks if convinced the alternative was the socialism they so despise.

But neither party has yet solved another factor. Republicans say some of their people will not contribute because they are sure the GOP will lose and why waste money on a sure loser.

Democrats say an argument they run into is just the opposite: "We're a shoo-in and you don't need my money."

HAVE
GOD

There is a Way

But it is not the way this man has been going. He forgot to read and heed the word of God, "Wealth maketh many friends; but the poor is separated from his neighbor." Pro. 19:4. His bank account is bulging but his troubled heart is empty. His earth is without form, and void, and darkness is upon his face. Jesus told us, "A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." Pro. 18:24. It isn't by way of wealth, fame, or fortune, but by the way of God. To this man and to all of us He is constantly repeating the most glorious invitation of the centuries...

"Take My Hand."

The strong hand of a warm friend pressed upon his shoulder will help but what this man needs is to seek the counsel of a minister and join up with the forces that work for a better world through Him.
